KILL THE TRAMP DOGS.

A worthless dog issue is just as common in Westmoreland county as in Washington, according to the Washington Tribune and just as far from settlement. The reason for this is that the law for the extermination of dogs is not actively enforced by the people. Now and then a constable will take the warrent and put some needed money in his pocket by slaying a hundred or so useless dogs but this activity is personal and sporadic.

The anti-dog law is on the books and the who seeks to enforce it may do so without encountering anything more than an occasional individual owner of a possibly hostile owner of a dog and possibly much loved dog but he will get no medal. The law says every dog shall wear a tag, the price of which is one dollar. The owner who does not think enough of his dog to provide him with a tag thereby assures his safety has no claim of complaint if the animal is killed and killed.

Industries everywhere should get this useless live stock. In the districts it is a source of conflict and loss to farmers the killing of their sheep.
There is no economic value. Sheep should be protected.
The dog at Derry who slew 150 other dogs the other day rendered great service to his community.

GOOD NEWS.

The news that a settlement of the dispute over two local trolley lines has been effected is good news. Business conditions have suffered, and there can be a readjustment that be eminently pleasing.

That makes the settlement seem all the more an occasion for rejoicing at this particular time is that the trolley line will be opened. This development of a rich territory and the connecting up of important points.

The points of settlement of the dispute are matters that concern men who were on strike and the affiliated companies. The chief interest to the public is that the dispute has been ended.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A man very much out of breath ran into a railway station and made a wild rush for the ticket sellers window, says an exchange. A few minutes later he came back and sat down with an air of dejection.

So you missed your train," remarked his neighbor. "I suppose there was a woman at the ticket window hunting for her pocketbook?"

Worse than that," replied the disappointed one. "There was a fat man trying to get through the turn-stile."

VETERAN RETIRED

Thomas Rainey, of Mon-essen Pensioned After 44 Years Service

Thomas Rainey was taken out of the works of the Carnegie Steel company at Monessen Tuesday and placed on the pension roll, after 44 years of continuous service as an employee of the company. He was a rougher in the mill.

Mr. Rainey began work in the steel mill with J. Painter and son in 1870.
He came to Monessen March 22, 1899, and since then has owned two or three good properties in Monessen. He is now moving to 100 Anabel street, Mount Washington, Pittsburg, where he has purchased a home.

When he finished his work Tuesday he was notified to report at the mill this morning at 9 o'clock. When he went to the mill the men and a number of the officials of the company gathered around him and presented him with a gold watch and charm.
One side of the watch was set with diamonds. On the reverse side was the inscription: "To J. Rainey, From ten inch mill workers, 7-1-14," the figures being the date of the month, day and year that he was relieved from work.

The presentation address was made by J. W. Greff, a roller in the mill.
Supt. Hoffman and Assistant Supt.
Ebenough were among the officials of the company present.

DR. HAZLETT
DIES AT HOME IN CALIFORNIA

Dr. Isaac Hazlett, aged 74 years, a retired physician, died Monday night at 9:30 o'clock at his home in California following a week's illness of paralysis. He was stricken one week ago Sunday while seated on his porch ready to attend church.

Dr. Hazlett was born on a farm near Washington, February 20, 1840, being the son of Samuel and Rebecca Hazlett, prominent residents of Washington county years ago. He studied medicine and taught school in this county.

On April 4, 1868, Dr. Hazlett was united in marriage with Miss Nancy Jennings of Scott Hill. After completing his medical course he practiced in Scott Hill, Uniontown, Monessen and Belle Vernon. He retired from the practice of his profession ten years ago and settled in California.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and for 45 years had been an elder in the various congregations to which he had belonged. No children survive. His wife survives with two sisters and one brother, Mrs. John Finley and Miss Ruth Hazlett of Uniontown and James Hazlett of near Pittsburg.

Dr. Hazlett was well known in Charleroi, as he was throughout the county. Funeral services will be held from the Hazlett home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. O.
K. Walker, pastor of California Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. A.
W. Renton, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be in charge.
Interment will be in the Beallsville cemetery.

SMALL CAR JUMPS TRACK NEAR RIVERVIEW

One of the Pittsburgh Railways
Riverview, Tuesday night at 9:40 o'clock and plunged into the bank. No one was injured. Only the crew in charge of the car was on it. Traffic was delayed. One load of passengers each way was transferred.

the bar and was riding the circuit. I was appointed by the court to defend a middle-aged fellow who was indicted for the murder of his mother. It was regarded as a bad case and naturally, I wanted to make as much reputation out of it as I could. I examined the indictment carefully and was unable to pick a flaw in it.

"Then I took my client to one side for a private consultation and told him it was necessary that I should know the exact truth, assuring him, of course, that whatever he told me, as his counsel, was privileged and could not be used against him. Then I shot the direct question at him:

"Did you kill your mother?"
"Yes," he replied, "I did kill her."
"Why did you do it?" I asked.
"I killed her," he answered, "because she was not worth living."

SORREL PETE, LIKE THE IMMOR-TAL BARKIS, WAS "WIDE IN"

Little Matter of Temper in Wife, Who Was in a Manner Thrust Upon Him, Really Made Little Difference.

In the door of his ranch house on a western prairie, Pete Barker—known as Sorrel Pete—sat idly whistling and waiting when his old chum Mac Towles rode up the trail and stopped.

"Vacop!" yelled Pete. "Jest look who's here! Haven't set eyes on you since you saved my life in that old flooded mine, back yonder."
"No," agreed Mac, "and speaking of that, I'm here right now to reward you of the promise you made then. Do you remember it?"

"Yes, sir! I vowed that any time you wanted anything off me, you'd get it, no odds what it was."

"Well, I want something now," com-fessed Mac, "but I'm most afraid I'm asking too much."

"Sho, I'll bet you ain't no such thing. What is it? Come, right out with it."

"Well, my wife and I want you to come over and marry our cook."
"Jinkins! Would she have me, a souse?"

"Oh, there won't be any trouble about that. You're just the style she likes, and she ain't set on staying single."

"Jest listen to that! She awful homely looking?"
"Not so bad."
"Kin she cook?"
"Fine."

"Well, I'm a bachelor man. I like womenfolks and good cooking as well as any other lonesome old catter does, but where's the favor I'm doin' you?
Looks to me like it's all on the other foot—hey?"

"Pete, she's the worst tempered woman that ever tackled a rolling pin. My wife don't dare go into the kitchen, and I wouldn't hanker to, either. And she won't let us discharge her; we've tried that, but she just simply won't have it. Our only hope in marrying her off, and we thought of you—but I guess the sacrifice is too much to ask."

"Sacrifice nothing," shouted Pete.
"You hold on till I get a cracker saddled and I'll hike right home with you and marry the gal immediate. If she'll say the word. Things have been pesky quiet here lately; no fights, nor nothing. I need a little shakin' up. And anyhow, Sorrel Pete never goes back on a promise. If an old chum that saved my ornery life at the risk of his own makes a pint of me marryin' a cranky cook, I'll do it without battin' an eye. Come on!"

It is pleasant to be able to add that, barring a few interesting skim-ishes, Pete and his wife, the ex-cook, are now joggling along in a very fair state of felicity.—Youth's Companion.

latest fad in St. Louis society. The subjects are the sons and daughters of some of the most prominent fami-thus far modeled is Edward Mallack-

COMMONSENSE people all now recognize the value of letting the public know who you are, and what you have to offer in the world in the way of commodity or service.

WHEN we speak of advertising we speak of the most powerful force that acts today in the world of business.

THE American people form by all odds, the best educated and most open-minded public in the world. All they want is the truth, and when get that, they act clearly, logically, and some times with surprising speed.

THE public wants to know the facts. It wants the facts about a kind of shoe or a brand of flour. It wants to know the kind of stuff that goes into a suit of clothes or a package of crackers.

The One Thing Above All Others The Public Demands is Publicity

It has learned to be very skeptical about any event that occurs in the dark.

Do not keep your light under a bushel and create the opinion that you are no longer in business. Let the people know what you have to offer to them.

TWELVE HITS OF "PAT"

Charleroi's baseball team of the Monongahela valley league, on Tuesday went to Fayette City and lost to the club of that place in a somewhat one-sided game by the score of 9 to 4. Swaney, of Monessen, pitched for Charleroi but the Fayette City batters found his delivery for a good hot-safeties.

The up-river lads had things coming their way for keeps in the eighth inning when by a series of hits and other things, they managed to chase the home team from the park.

Charleroi's scores all came in the first and second innings. Three were cleaned by good hitting in the second. Score:

of the fiscal year in April than it was three years previously.
"There were 81 baptisms. The Sunday school was increased from the average attendance of 60 and 70 to 140, 160 and 180 at different periods. It has at present 232 on the roll in the main school with an average attendance of 125 and 135. The school is in good condition financially. It has had the graded system for five years and two teacher training classes have been carried on for the same length of time.
"The Christian Endeavor has never been large in numbers, but it had the best year in its report from 1913 to 1914. The Women's Missionary society presented an excellent report in April, and had its red letter year in the way of interest and amount contributed to missions."

IN CHARLEROI

The Evidence Is Supplied by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Charleroi what can it be?

Mrs. J. M. Wilson, 13 Third St., Charleroi, Pa., says: "One of the family has to work in a stooped over position and I believe that caused his kidney trouble. He complained a lot of pains across his back and kidneys and he had headaches and dizzy spells. The kidneys were in bad shape and the kidney secretions contained sediment and were discolored. He was suffering severely when I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Piper's Pharmacy for him. In a short time after using Doan's Kidney Pills he was benefited. The pain in his back left and his kidneys acted more regularly. Several years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of an attack of kidney trouble."

A Later Endorsement.

On January 29, 1914, Mrs. Wilson said: "I still hold as high an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I gave a statement recommending them some time ago. I advise anyone suffering from kidney and bladder trouble to take this remedy."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilson recommends. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

What Constitutes Success?

There are different standards of judging. John Wana matter ought to know something about it. He has attained heights in the business world where his opinions carry weight. Listen to what he says—

"The chief reason that everybody is not successful is the fact that he has not enough persistence. Do one thing well throwing all your energies into it. The successful man, unlike the poet, is made, not born."

Encouraging, isn't it? Now persist a little more diligently than ever. And let us help you by caring for your money.
